

Czech Unique Accommodation & Experiences

KOMPAS

Czech Republic is home to more than 1500 castles and chateaus, most of them outside Prague. The origins of majority of them belong to the medieval times specially during the reign of the Holy Roman Emperor Charles IV in 14th century. Habsburg Empire ruled the land from 18th century. The rulers and related aristocratic families since Middle Ages built, destroyed, and re-constructed several chateaus and castles with various architectural influences like gothic, art deco, baroque, renaissance, art nouveau, neo-gothic to neo-renaissance.

During the World War II and Soviet rule lot of the beautiful properties were severely damaged. After the Velvet Revolution in 1989, measures, that included lot of financial investments and advises from expert historians, have been taken to restore the properties to their original glory. Castles like Prague Castle complex, Karlstejn, Cesky Krumlov Castle, and others can be visited to learn about the history and lifestyle of the noble families, who lived there since the medieval times. Some of those castles even allow visitors to experience the royal life by letting them eat, sleep, and enjoy life like the nobles.

In this brochure Kompas Praha presents to you some of the best Castle and Chateau hotels of Czech Republic ideal for romantic getaways, weddings and celebrations, gala dinners, conferences, team-building activities and more.
